SEA ROBBER

A black and white photograph of a beach scene. The foreground shows a sandy beach with some small, dark, irregular shapes scattered across it. In the middle ground, there are several waves breaking, creating white foam. The background is a sky filled with large, dark, and light clouds. The overall tone is somber and reflective.

IN MEMORIAM

Marion Lehde

Bruce Everett Zumbuhl

This book is dedicated to Miss White and Mr. Fairchild who have given so willingly of their time.

Miss White, who has managed so successfully the candy store, student store, school accounts, and contributed to many other school activities; Mr. Fairchild, who has given so generously of his time to make both the Drama and Speech Departments outstanding are examples of the teachers who make school more than just a place of learning.

Miss White and Mr. F--Success on your new jobs--Seaside High School will miss you--

Sports

Football season turned out to be the biggest season for the Seagulls and the student body. The Gulls went through their regular league play without a loss. This entitled them to meet Sherwood in the quarter-final game which was won by Seaside. The Gulls then traveled to Bandon where they met the Tigers in the semi-final playoff game. This game ended the Gulls winning streak and the season as they were defeated 12-0.

The Seaside's put together a very fine defense this year, which was noted throughout the state. The offense started out slow, but gained momentum as the season went by.

One of the highlights of the season came when the Seagulls defeated the North Catholic Royals on their home field. But probably the biggest highlight of the season came when the Gulls won the chance to play the quarter-final and semi-final games.

"The season was thoroughly successful and the seniors on this year's team wish the team next as much success as this season.

COWAPA LEAGUE TROPHY

ALL LEAGUE

In many ways the Seagull basketball season was disappointing this year and yet there were some highlights to the season.

The Gulls started out the year ranked third in the state. As league play rolled around, the Seagulls seemed to lose part of their strength shown at the beginning of the season.

Throughout league play they had their ups and downs, finally ending up with a 4-4 record. This is the first time in the last six years the Gulls haven't made the league playoffs.

Of course, there are some high spots in the basketball season. The second game of the season was one for the Gulls as they tromped over Estacada, who did the same to the Gulls last year.

The Seaside-Warrenton games always prove exciting and this year was no exception. The Gulls split a pair with the Warriors this year.

Probably the biggest moment came when the Gulls traveled to Nestucca (2nd rated in the state) and pulled out a win to be one of the two teams to beat the Bobcats this year. This is the first time a Seaside team has beaten the Bobcats on their home court.

The Gulls, by no means, had a losing season. They ended up with a 14-6 win lose record.

Basketball Banquet

For the fourth straight year, Seaside's baseball team won the Cowapa League title, defeating North Catholic (east half representative) in a best of three series.

Led by pitcher Steve Phillips (8-1 for the season) and Rick Lucas (top hitter on the squad, .350 ave.), the Gulls compiled a season record of 14 wins, 4 losses. The bid for a state championship to cap retiring coach Ev Clarry's fine years at the helm fell short when the Seagulls were stopped in the quarter final playoff game by the Sherwood Bowmen.

The team selected senior Steve Phillips as Honorary Captain and Jim Cole, only four-year letterman on the squad, as Most Inspirational Player.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The Seagull thinclads had a very good season this year, which was climaxed by a district championship, and the sending off eight men to the state track meet in Corvallis.

The Gulls lost only one dual meet this year, that being to an A-1 school. They placed second in the Astoria and St. Helens Relays and won the sub-district track meet.

Out of the eight men who participated in the state meet only one made the finals. This is the most men the Gulls have qualified for the state meet. Three of those eight will return next year and will make up the nucleus of the track squad.

Coach Fred Duncan's golf squad this year was led to the State Golf meet by #1 point getter Syd Jones, Throughout the season Jones dominated the top spot on the squad; Mike Herron, a junior who ended second in points on the team played well all year, also.

Besides Jones, the only other senior on the team was Brand Dichter. Randy Hartill and Joe Perrigo, both juniors, will return next season along with Herron to give Coach Duncan a running start at rebuilding a squad to match this year's fine group.
